What's inside

How to use each page

Turkey in disguise: dress the turkey up as anything (a firefighter, a pumpkin, a pizza) with paper, fabric scraps, yarn and stickers, then finish the sentence at the bottom.

Place cards: write a name on each card, cut it out, fold on the dashed line, and stand it on the plate or tuck it into a pinecone.

Thankful leaves and gratitude chain: add one leaf or one paper link a day in the weeks before Thanksgiving. Glue the strips into loops to make the chain.

Thankful pie: color each slice like a different pie and fill it with something you are thankful for. Glue it to a paper plate to hang it up.

Bookmarks: color, cut out, punch a hole at the top, and tie on a ribbon.

Tips by age

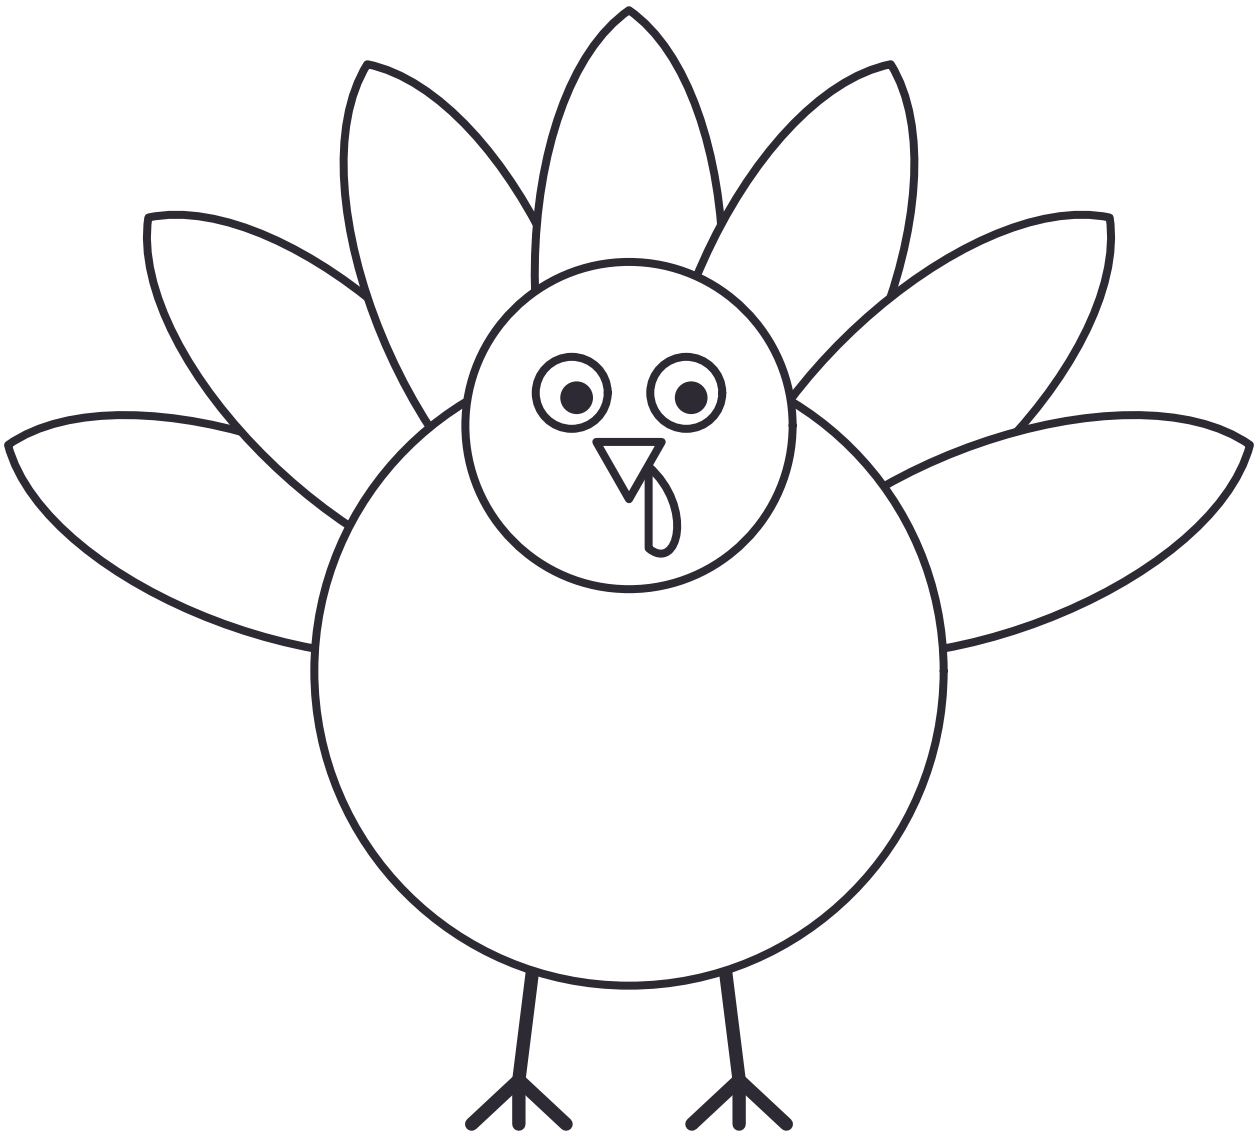

Ages 3 to 4: a grown-up cuts, and children color, stick and draw. Ages 5 to 8: child-safe scissors on the solid lines. Print on cardstock for place cards and bookmarks.

Keep beads, pom-poms and googly eyes away from little brothers and sisters who still put things in their mouths.
